Fine Land, in Tracts of 40 Acres or More

The top soil is a black sandy loam. The underlying soil is lighter, mixed with sand and a kind of silt, composed of vegetable matter. The soil is good, produces corn abundantly, all the grasses, and will grow alfalfa well. The growing of alfalfa has been demonstrated on land of the same character, and in the same vicinity for a number of years. It will grow four or five crops of alfalfa, that is from a ton to two tons per acre, which will not the owner not less than $10.00 per ton and possibly $15.00 per ton, and is always salable. Any purchaser may buy 40 acres or more of this land by applying to Merrill Pipkin, and agreeing to pay $30,00 per acre. At the time of the purchase 10 per cent must be paid, and the remainder of the purchase money must be paid within ten years. The division of the balance of the purchase price being equally for each year, until the ten years expire. Interest 5 per cent on notes given for the balance of the purchase money, secured by first mortgage on the land. There is a drainage tax of $10.00 per acre, payable in 20 years, which will be 50c per acre annually. The school, county and state taxes

The Frisco railroad runs within a half mile of the East line of the section, and the station most available is Tallipoosa. Good water, clear as crystal, can be getten by driving a pump from fifteen to twenty-five feet, which can be done in a half day. The building places are good and a house such as would be wanted by a settler should not cost more than from $400.00 to $600.00. Lumber and other building materials are near and cheap.

There are no mosquitos, and health is as good as anywhere else. It is but a few miles to Parma, a good town, where health is as good as in the hills. Taking it all in all this is a most excellent opportunity for men of limited means to get a home; and the land when open to clutivation will be worth not less than $75.00 per acre. It will produce $50.00 bushels of corn to the acre, oats, timothy, wheat, cow peas, etc., and alfalfa as already described.

The timber on the land with careful handling will pay the greater part of the cost of clearing, and consists of gum, ash, sycamore, elm, and other swamp growths.

This section lies between two dredge ditches, running paralell with the West and the East lines of the section. These ditches are to be redredged this coming summer, which will give the section excellent drainage, which will fit it well for alfalfa.

There will be also steel bridges built across these dredge ditches every two miles. Public roads have been laid out and platted for opening, which will pass over such bridges. The dirt thrown from these ditches at a depth of not less than eight feet and to twelve feet show the character of the soil.

says:
"While prices are unprecedented here, still enough articles of common use remain fairly cheap that we can still carry the boarding department cheaper than other years, counting our money on the gold basis. A sack of sugar will now cost about $60, but a sack of beans only costs $13 to $15, and we use more beans than sugar. A sack of flour will cost about $40. but we use tortillas once a day always and they cost less. Still I would find it hard were it not for another fact. which is, that we are collecting more for tuition and board, in proportion, than ever before. One lady has just paid me for her sister for four months in advance, a thing very unusual. One of our finest girls made a profession of faith last Sunday.

States, have associated themselves feet. He was buried Sunday. together as a joint committee to conduct a plan of prayer and propaganda for world peace. They have issued a statement urging co-operation. Among other suggestions they hope to have a "pageant of peace" given by children all over the country on Memorial day, and they also ask that July 4th be observed by missionaries throughout the world as a special day of prayer for this object.

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the World's Sunday School association it was voted to procoed with plans for the world's eighth Sunday School Convention which is to be held at Toyko, October, 1916, regardless of the war now raging, in the hope that peace will be declared soon enough to make possible a successful convention.

Over 100 mission stations and some 430 out-stations are strewn over Turkish dominions. The church missionary society has extensive work throughout Palestine, the Lebanons and the plains of the Euphrates and Tigris. American socities have many stations in Armenia and Asia Minor; and a number of other missions have work on a smaller scale. Altogether, there are some 800 European and American missionaries and wives laboring in the Turkish empire (not including Egypt). The outbreak of war certainly means the abandonment for the time being of all British stations and probably of American also, for in a war with "Christian powers" the Turkish mobs and Kurdish troops will not easily distinguish between one mission and another. We know too well what the cry "Kill the Christians" means under the Turkish flag. No details are to hand, but doubtless all the workers are in full flight-in some cases, we fear, for very life, This constitutes a new call to prayer. -Foreign Field.

Of the protestant denominations in the United States, the Methodist Episcopal church reports the largest increase in membeship since 1910a total gain of 416,403. The Southern Baptist church ranks second, with an increase of 309,151.

Says a missionary, the greatest thing in India was not Mount Everest or the Taj Mabal. It was a lone American woman physician, daughter of a university professor, living alone in one of India's sacred cities. In Brinda-ban, on the Juna, thronging with garlanded sacred cows, chattemple women to the number of eight thousand-a haunting night-mare of a city-she was carrying on her work. Never can I forget that good-bye as she stood on the veranda of her bungalow. It seemed so impossible to leave her there, lily faced, lily-souled. in that cess-pool of iniquity, with not a single one of my own race. She answered the unspoken thought: "But these people are my people." Her life was a vow. With another she had said: "These people shall be my people until my God is their God." So the people call her a Sadhu—a holy one and when she lay sick unto death they hovered about the door saying "I will not speak, only let me see her."

SWOPE MEETING CLOSES AFTER MARKED SUCCESS

The two weeks' protracted meeting at the Methodist Church under Evangelist Swope and Singer Young came to an end Tuesday night. About 80 tering sacred monkeys, vile priests. the various churches. Others who gave their names for membership in were reclaimed ran the list to considerably past the hundred mark, probably a hundred and fifty.

Rev. Swope is a very remarkable man. He is an orator rarely surpass ed and he gets a holt on his audienc es little less than wonderful. He is one evangelist who is said never to fail to hold a successful meeting wherever he goes.

The church was always crowded and often many were turned away. The vicious attacks made by the preacher on all sorts of wickedness certainly had a great effect and the moral consciousness of the community has been greatly revived by the series of meetings.

An offering of about $300 was made the evangelist and singer for their you will be in touch with the affairs Call up or come in and see us. labors here.-Democrat-News.
